

This is the dormer. It's gabled when it has this kind of roof. The triangle front is the closed pediment (you can almost make out the starburst design)

Modillions and dentils are here under the frieze and cornice

Lintels are the stone headers above the windows and door.

Sills go below.

